Dear Stan:

The Labor Day recess is just beginning, and the Senate will be away for about ten days. However, I wanted you to know of my very, very deep interest in what has happened in the Kampiles case.

I will not rest easily until we have reached the absolute bottom of how this could happen but, more importantly to me, how it could have happened and how the document could have been missed for so long a time. I have a feeling you need a complete revision of your filing system and more attention paid to your records. I know you are going to hear from the staff on this, but when I return I hope we will be able to sit down and have a better idea of just where we stand.

With best wishes,

Barry
